

SHANNONDALE FARM CLINICS 2010

“From the Judge’s Perspective” Clinic Series:

Format includes Friday: 3 groups of 4-5 people in 1 hour lesson. All different levels. Simulating a show warm-up ring. Judge will coach riding etiquette, proper warm-up techniques, how to address problem areas, correct mental prep for test riding. Afternoon lecture. Saturday/Sunday: 30 minute Ride-A-Test of Choice sessions for each participant. Judge will score test and discuss scores after completion, coach how to improve certain movements or overall quality to improve test score. Training-Grand Prix

This series is an absolute must for those who are showing to accomplish certain goals such as year-end points or medals. Excellent opportunity for Professionals, Amateurs, and Young Riders to get in front of a Judge in an educational setting; allow them to put a name with a face and give you some expert information for future show ring success.*

Gary Rockwell; USEF(O) JUDGE

May 6-8

As a member of the United States Equestrian Team, Gary Rockwell represented the U.S. in competitions throughout Europe. He won a team silver medal at CHIO Rotterdam in 1993/ team bronze at the 1994 World Championships at The Hague, Netherlands. As a USEF judge for 25 yrs +, he has officiated at many regionals and national championships. As an FEI judge, he has officiated at North American Young Riders Championships, three times on the FEI Challenge Tour, the World Cup Final, and European Championships. Gary Rockwell (USA) is an International O Dressage Judge from USA, and was an official judge for dressage at the 2008 Beijing Olympics.

Jeanne McDonald; USEF (S)/(I) JUDGE

July 16-18

Jeanne is a Grand Prix Dressage rider as well as an AHSA Dressage "S" judge, USDF (I) judge. Jeannie competes a number of horses every year from Training level to Grand Prix. Currently she is breeding/training/competing her stallion Tantris at the FEI levels. She owns and operates Turning Point Farm, in Pennsylvania. Jeannie's background of training non-traditional and traditional dressage horses, has given her a special gift in helping every rider and horse reach their potential. For the last five years she has been training with Jessica Ransenhousen.

Betsy Berry; USEF (S) JUDGE

August 20-22

With more than 20 years of judging dressage shows all over the U.S, Betsy sees the importance judging has on our sport. She is a member of the USDF "L" program faculty/standing committee member, a Bronze and Silver medalist, and creator of DRESSAGE DIMENSIONS and the WINNING EDGE DVD Series. She conducts training specifically to show riders how to improve scores through better understanding of how judges see and what is required at each level to maximize performance.

Sandra Hotz; USEF (S) JUDGE

October 1-3

In preparation for Regional Championships, Sandra will share her extensive knowledge on dressage showing with us. She is a well-respected competitor and judge, having trained many horses to Grand Prix and won many notable competitions/ year-end awards. She has trained with Herbert Rehbein, Arthur Kottas, Robert Dover, Harry Boldt, and Bo Jena. Her teaching style is positive and creative- realizing no 2 horse/riders are put together the same way.
